Dear Mr. Feldstein:

Thank you very much for your letter of 29 December 1959 inviting me to address the Freshman class of Brown University at a class dinner in the latter part of March.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation, even though you were good enough to give me the choice of a date. In view of my present official position, it is necessary for me to restrict my speaking engagements to the various government service schools with an infrequent outside address. Unfortunately I cannot make an additional commitment at this time.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

My dear Mr. Dulles,

The Freshman class of Brown University is planning a class dinner. We would be honored if you will address us on this occasion.

At this time we have the following dates available: March twenty-first thru twenty-fourth and twenty-eighth thru thirtieth inclusive. I would appreciate your answering this letter as soon as possible so that we may take care of the necessary details.

Respectfully Yours,

Lewis M. Feltman
